TRAVELOGUE: A Trip to Jordan with Teresa Wilkin

Wednesday, April 10 @ 10:15 am • Olympia Senior Center

This 10-day Friendship Force International Discover Jordan journey included visits to the King Abdullah Mosque; Jerash which is one of the cities of the ancient Decapolis and one of the largest Roman cities in the Middle East; and Ajloun castle which was built during the 12th century by the nephew of the famous Arab general, Saladin, and a tour of Petra which is one of the “New Seven Wonders of the World” amongst many other highlights. Teresa is retired from the U.S. Department of State as a Foreign Service Officer, has traveled extensively, and is a member of the Friendship Force of Greater Olympia Club.

HUMANITIES WA: What's Age Got to Do with It? with Dori Gillam

Wednesday, April 17 @ 10:15 am • Olympia Senior Center

“You look your age.” “You’re too young to understand.” In employment decisions, family discussions, medical care, and even in birthday cards, assumptions about being “over the hill” or “a lazy kid” are common. What do you wish society would stop saying about your generation? How can we talk about age and aging in a more positive, affirming way? In this interactive and fun talk, Dori Gillam welcomes individuals to explore how we can begin valuing all ages – including our own. Dori holds a BS in educational psychology and a teaching certificate for secondary education.

Identity Theft with Britny Davis

Wednesday, April 24 @ 10:15 am • Olympia Senior Center

Britny will be discussing various forms of fraud and will focus on identity theft as well as discuss the services that the non-profit organization Crime Victim Advocacy offers. Britny is an intern with Crime Victim Advocacy Network, as well as a Senior at Saint Martin’s University’s Social Work program, set to graduate in May of this year.

Lacey Then, Lacey Now with Erin Quinn Valcho

Tuesday, April 30 @ 1:00 pm • Lacey Senior Center

Come find out about Lacey back in the day compared to Lacey now. The Lacey Museum Curator, Erin Quinn Valcho, will be sharing a fascinating presentation about our amazing city. If you have and wish to share any historic Lacey photos or memorabilia, this would be a great time to bring it with you.
